

RIDE OVER THE RAINBOW - TRIBUTE MILES
NAME	LOCATION	DONATOR		DEDICATION	HISTORY
Butterfly's Mile	Mile 1 out of camp	Anne Mackay			In memory of Ann Mackay's mother Violet Mackay.
Taz's Mile	Mile 3 on Orange overlooking UL Midday Ranch in the valley below	ERABC		A Good Horse Gone Too Soon	Garry Forde's horse who tragically died after Ironhorse Endurance Ride Sept. 2000
Joker's Mile	Mile 5 on Orange after trail leaves Lily Lake Rd.	Margo Murray & Kim Hofmarks		Handsome, Humourous and Always Hungry ... This Grassy Area Is For You	Joker was a Morgan cross co-owned by Margo and Kim who taught young people, young horses, and any newbie about trails and horses.
Dakota's Mile	Mile 6 on Orange	ERABC		He Always Gave His Best - Thanks Forever	Kim Hofmarks' horse who tragically died at the Oregon 100 in 2001 after 1975 miles
Morocko's Mile	Mile 12 +/- on Orange overlooking Merritt and the Nicola Valley	The Carleton Family		A True Friend - Forever a Drinker of the Wind - A Tough Competitor To The End	Nicole Carleton's horse who died coming out of anesthesia after hock surgery in 1996
Cummings Mile	Mile 24 on Orange coming home through the woods	Greg, Shirley & Kevin Cummings		Bradley Henry Cummings - A Loving Free Spirit Who Will Live Forever	In Memory of the Cummings' son and brother
Forde's Mile	Mile 26 +/- on Orange coming home through the woods	Garry and Linda Forde		His Life Only 29 years. His memory will Live Forever	For Garry's brother who was also his best friend.
Running Times Mile	Mile 29 +/- on Orange at the water hole on 'Bear Alley'	Pat Hayward		"Ad Astra Per Aspera" ...a rough road leads to the stars ...	For all the horses on her 100 Mile House Running Times Ranch

BCCTRA's Mile	Mile 30 +/- on Orange at junction of white, yellow and orange	BCCTRA		Encouraging The Preservation of Equestrian Trails	To support this trail system and distance riding
Officer Bob's Mile	Mile 31 on Orange where trail goes off the Yellow Rd.	Kim Ward		When You Need To Get It Done, Count On Officer Bob Ward!	For Kim's dad Bob, retired RCMP officer and helper at Rainbow
Anne's Mile	The other end of Mile 31	Anne Neary		Experience the Oneness	To support this trail system & endurance riding
Hyundai Hump	Mile 2 on Silver where it crosses Patchet Rd.	Don Quast Hyundai		When Tired of 4 Leg Riding, see Don Quast for 4 Wheel Riding, Green & Broke All Breeds	To support this trail system & endurance riding
Drifter's Mile	Mile 1 on Silver	Danny Grant		CDR Soliloquy: 5 ROC's, 5 Tevis'2 FEI's Career Wins 14, BC's 13	To commemorate an extraordinary horse who now is 24 and is passing on his 1035 AERC mile experience to younger horses and people at Danny's ranch in California.
Sir Prize's Mile	Mile 3 on Silver	Danny Grant		88 ROC, '89 ROC, '90 WEG, '91 FEI	To commemorate an extraordinary horse who now is 27 and still climbing the mountains he loves - 2680 AERC miles

Roc-Ette's Mile	Mile 4 on Silver	Barbara Holmes-Balmer		The Little Mare That Could	To commemorate an extraordinary mare with 3215 miles who now is having babies, training juniors and still going down the trails she loves
NAME	LOCATION	DONATOR		DEDICATION	HISTORY
Danny's Mile	Mile 12 +/- on Silver	Danny Grant		The Lifelong Pursuit of the Road Less Traveled	In recognition of the man who started this trail system and who improves it year after year
Solszar's Mile	Mile 20 on Silver just before Gate #1	Patricia & Laurence Henslee		For the Yank, Solszar HCC+I, aka Studley. Running the trails for 5000 miles. Here's to you, our # 1	To commemorate a great stallion who realized his 5000 mile mark on these trails.
Brooks' Bend	Mile 1 on White just out of camp	Michael Brooks		A Father and A Friend	In memory of Michael's father, Jim, who died in '96
Lana's Mile	Mile 5+/- on White	Brenda Miskimmin		Spirited, Willing, Beautiful - Remembered Forever	In memory of Brenda's horse, Shae Alanna who died in ' 97 at a young age but left her filly, Penny for Brenda to continue down the trails.
Sunny's Mile	Mile 6 on White after leaving Lily Lake road	Mel and Anne Marshall		"Sunny, Thanks for Always Bringing Me Home Safe"	In memory of Mel's horse Sunny, an American Saddlebred Palamino gelding who, starting as a pasture ornament till aged 9, came to the Marshalls and cared for Mel and his daughter through Pony Club, 3-day eventing, and sure footed trail riding throughout BC over the next 15 years.

Kismet's Mile	Mile 13+/- on White	Fiona Griffiths		A Great Horse. To Live On In the Hearts and Minds of Those Who Loved Us Is Not To Die.	In memory of Fiona's great gelding who died in his 16th year of cancer in 1993
Granny's Mile	Mile 99 on the finish into camp	ERABC		To Finish is To Win	In memory of Barbara's Mother, Evelyn, the maker of the Rainbow Sox.
Violet Mackay Gates	All the 4' metal gates put in at cattle gates/guards	The family of Violet Mackay		Violet Mackay (1920-1997), wife and mother whose love and memory we treasure	In memory of Ann Mackay's mother Violet Mackay.
Frank Doerksen's Mile	Mile 8 on White in the meadow above the "Bull" gate	Sarah McIntosh		A Loving Father Gone too Soon. Finally at Peace. Always Remembered	In memory of Sarah's father, (who died in 2001) and who was a great outdoorsman and supporter of his daughter's endurance adventures.